CHRISTMAS DANCE

The Christmas Dance which was held December 19 was sponsored by the Senior Class. The music for the dance was played by the Darrel Quartet.

A wonderful time was enjoyed by everyone as they were wishing each other a Merry Christmas. The gym was decorated beautifully with a large Christmas tree in the middle of the dance floor. Al Martin and Odette Kanaan were King and Queen of the dance.

CLASS HISTORY

Most of us can remember when our mother, or whomever they may have been, escorted us into one of the first grades at Liberty School. One by one we shyly approached the teacher to give our name. Included were: Margaret Flowers, Beatrice Collins, Pauline Saare, Judy Jones, Bill Creed, Sandra Neville, Katherine Gough, Jacqueline Neuder, Ray King, Lillian Check, Loretta Sund, Sally Felch, Ed Werden, Dorothy Rush, Roberta Helle, Raymond Jaminet, Dean Dravis, Robert McClelland, Lucius Gossick, and Charles Hoover. Then, we were all left at the mercy of the teacher. We were to begin our gradual climb up the ladder of education.

As we go up one more step in our education, Corinne Newlin joined our gang. During this second year we were quite proud of ourselves when we presented a Christmas operetta for the Mother's Club.

What a coincidence! Two pairs of twins dropped in on us in the third grade. What a time the teachers had telling them apart. Who else were they but Mary Lou and Betty Lou Wulk and Beverly and Barbara Colbert.

As we enter the fourth grade, we find that we had more subjects to study. Mike Ray joined us as we continued up the ladder of education.

The fifth grade was enlivened by Bob Rezanka. We joined with the sixth grade and presented an operetta called Tom Tit Tot.

Joining the sixth grade were Phil Harbison and Athena Costas. Phil along with Bob kept us laughing and never let things get dull.

The seventh grade was the turning point. No more recesses and we began to change classes. New members were Roger Carnahan, Adele Fausten, and Betty Ours.

A brilliant student in language joined us in eighth grade, namely Lawrence Ludt. Along with him were Ruth Murray and Donn Ridge.

More additions were in the ninth grade than any other grade. They were Arlene Buser, Shirley Frampton, Lois Weimer, Tom Webb, Paul Czegledy, and Odette Kanaan. We were then referred to as "freshmen."

In our sophomore year, new members were Richard Nuskievicz, Shirlee Scala, and Richard King. Incidentally, Dick King left us for a while but returned the following year.

Our junior year was the most exciting and interesting thus far. First, we had to earn the money for the Junior-Senior Prom which was held at the Squaw Creek Country Club. It was really the most important social event of our school year. Then three members of our class were on the National Honor Society. They were Athena Costas, Pauline Saare, and Loretta Sund. We were very happy when we received our class rings, and the class took pride in presenting their class play "Backwoods Romeo."

Here we are at the end of the line—our senior year. We've picked our invitations and name cards, and we also had our pictures taken at Abey's. Joann McGhee and Al Martin decided to join us as we finish one phase of life only to begin another.

Class Prophecy

by

CORINNE NEWLIN

It is the year 1973. The age of space ships, rockets, and jets. I am in business with Mary Lou Wulk, who does the modeling, and Betty Lou Wulk, who takes care of the business end. I manage the art department. Hurrying so as not to miss the space ship which is to take me on a tour of the neighboring planets, I say a hasty goodbye to the girls and am on my way.

Getting into the rocket-mobile which is to take me to the space port, I recognize the driver to be Bill Creed with Mike Ray as his able mechanic. In one infinitesimal fraction of a second I arrive at the space port. Guarding the gate, I see my old classmate Allen Martin. Walking to the ticket office, whom should I run into but Ed Werden. He told me he is making a trip to Venus to buy parts for his jet plane. Selling tickets at the space port is Dorothy Rush. She told me the owners of the thriving space port were Dick King and Bob Rezanka. Both doing quite well for themselves. Boarding the space line, I see Irene Helle, an efficient stewardess. Irene told me two more of our friends are aboard. They are Bob Blakely and Bob McClelland our pilots.

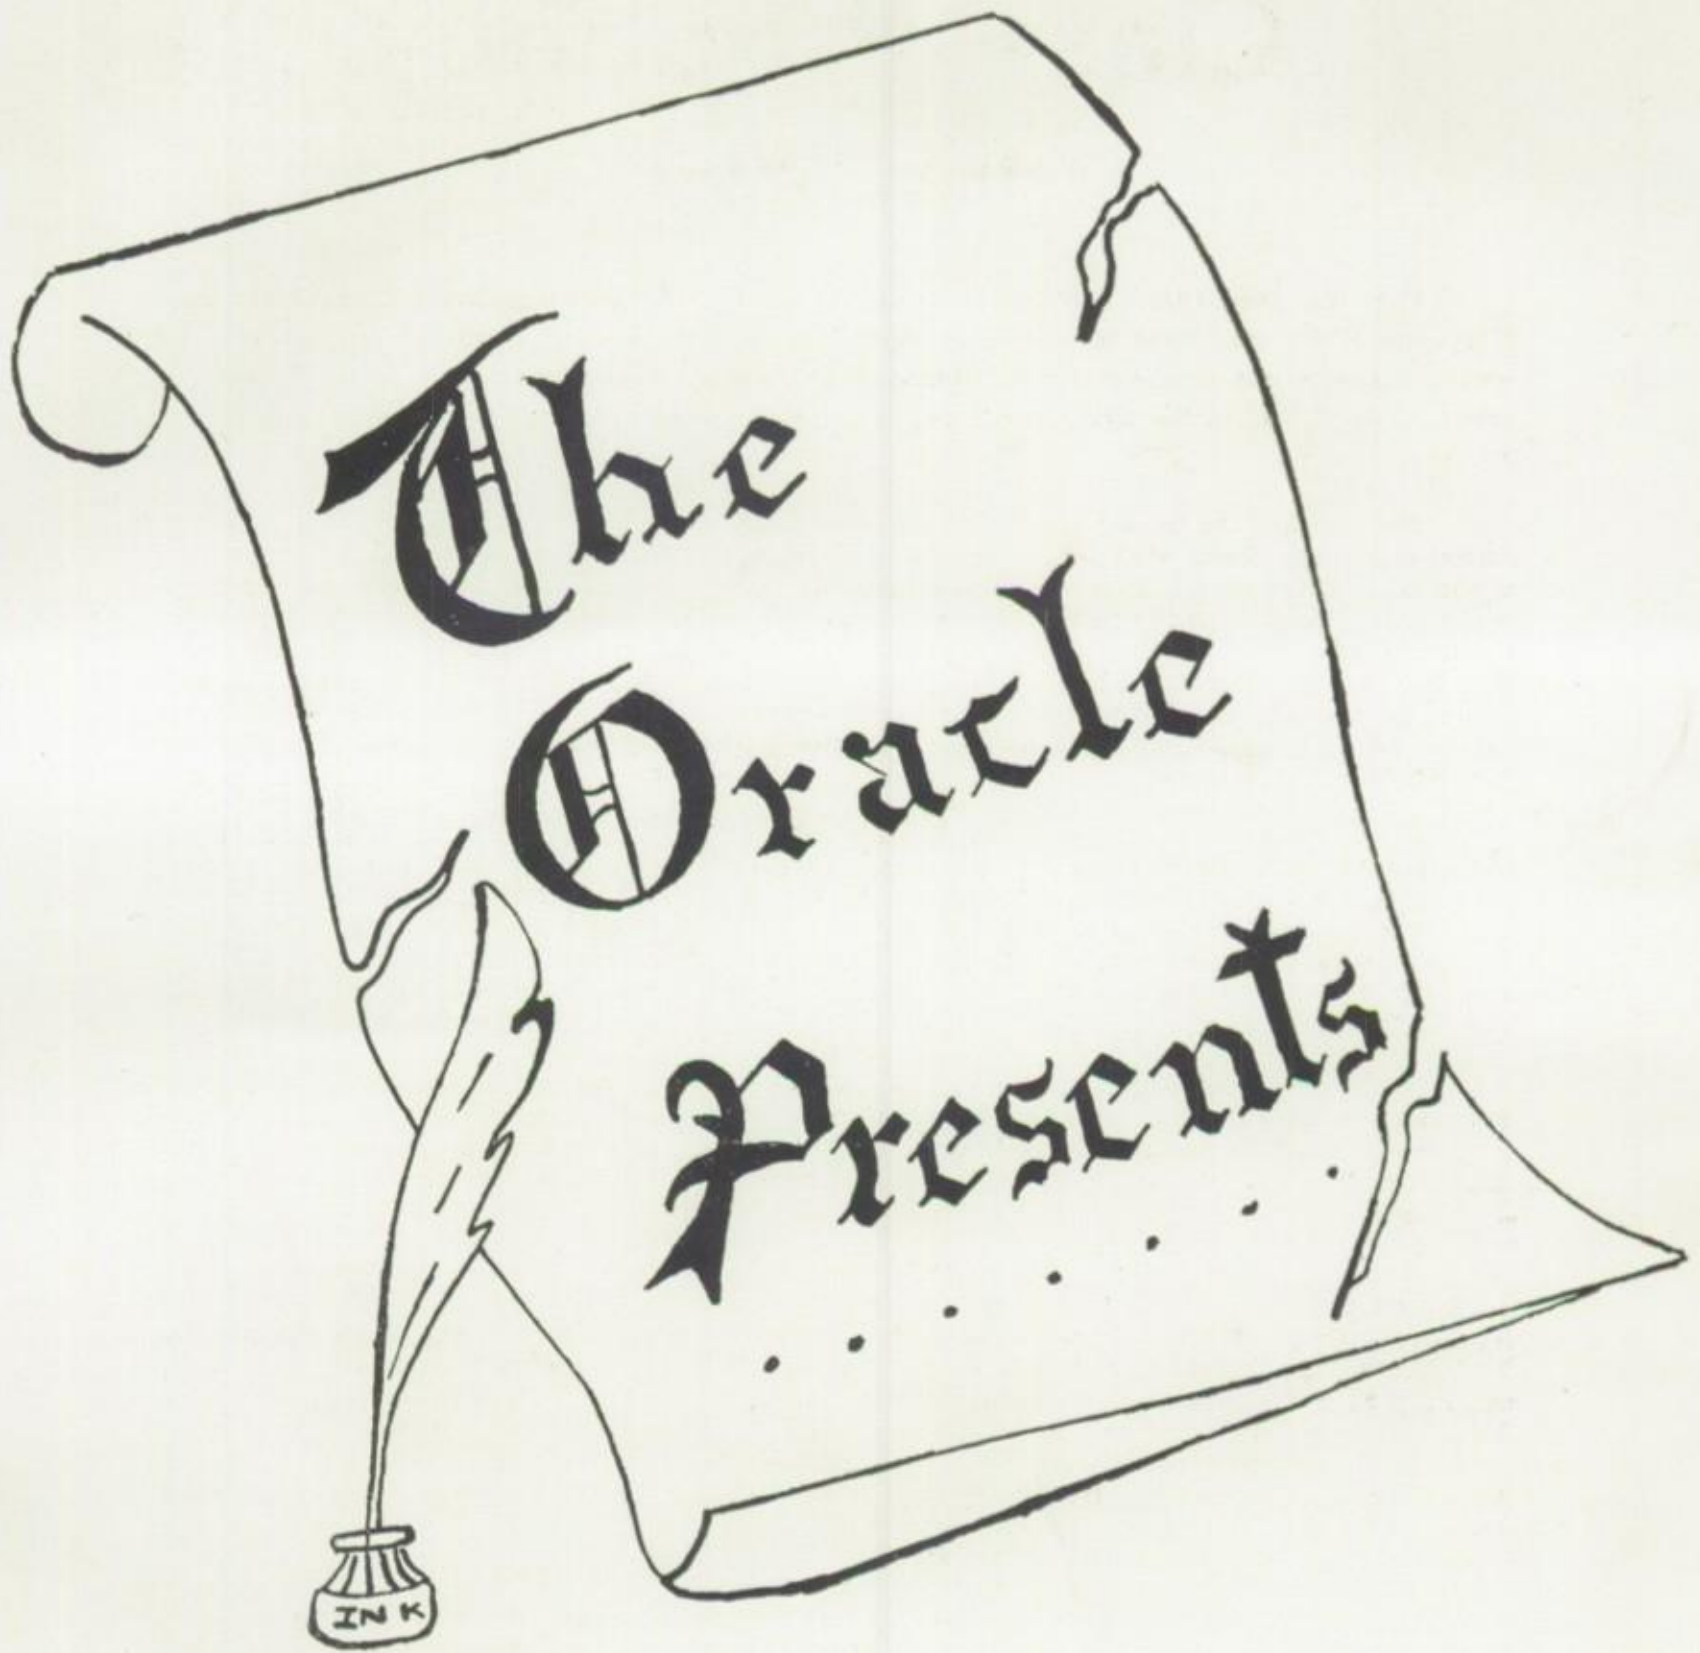

As we take off the planet Earth, we see below us, in the midst of the Wyoming Plains, Katherine Gough's thriving horse ranch and her very abled professional rider Bea Collins. Looking out the window of our space liner, I see sitting among the clouds in his anti-gravity chair, Donn Ridge with a paint brush in his hand, skillfully giving the stars more twinkle with this artistic touch. There, supervising his work, is stargazer Loretta Sund. Stop! Look! Is this a man from Mars, someone from out of space? No, it's Arlene Buser roller skating down the Milky Way on her rocket controlled skates.

As we pull into Mars, we are at a loss due to the various languages spoken here. But, there is our trusty interpreter Lawrence Ludt. All is well again. Unloading the baggage from the space liner is Thomas Webb. As I zip along my merry way, who should I see but Jackie Neuder, Joyce McGhee and husbands on their way to deposit their children at the Betty Our's Sitting Agency.

I then decide to take a tour through one of Mar's famous schools. As I enter the first grade classroom, I see Pauline Saare teaching her pupils to write with their longer than life-time pens. Going down the hall I see a cloud of smoke coming out of one of the classrooms. Upon further investigation, I find it to be Dick Nuskiewicz performing a dynamic experiment for his atom-eyed students. I decide it safer to leave the chemistry department, and go to the history class where I find Odette Kanaan, a very capable teacher, telling her classes of the good old days when people were doing very well in life to own an eight cylinder car. Going further I see the astrology department and there I find Roger Carnahan conducting a class. Surrounding him is a group of very young Misses. Among them I recognize Barbara and Beverly Colbert and Judy Jones all looking starry eyed and eager to learn more.

Suddenly realizing I have no time to lose for I want to see the planet Venus, I hurry back to the space port. At the space port I hear two voices calling me. Turning around I find them to be Paul Czegledy and Ray Jaminet. It seems that they, too, are going to Venus. We find that there is some mix-up in our reservations for seats on the space liner. Hoping to save time, we figure it best to go straight to the president of the Mars Space Port Company to check this mix-up. Upon entering the president's outer office, we find his three general secretaries to be Lillian Check, Marge Flowers, and Ruth Murray. They send us on to his private secretary Lois Weimer; and when we finally got to the president, we are very surprised to find him to be Lou Gossick. He informs us that his private investigator spotted our names on the passenger list, so he held a private space liner for us. He said he would have nothing but the best for his old classmates. Thanking him, we board the space liner and find the stewardess on this one to be Athena Costas, and our very able-bodied pilots are Charles Hoover and Ray King. We see one other passenger aboard who turns out to be the famous lawyer Shirley Frampton. She is going to Venus to represent an old friend, Shirlee Scala, who is suing the University of Venus for neglect in the purchase of the more modern laboratory equipment for her use in research work.

After landing in Venus, we tour the planet for a while. We then decide to observe an operation being performed in the City Hospital by surgeon Sally Felch and her assistant Adele Fausten. After leaving the hospital, we see a huge building. Upon further investigation we find that is the newest type of lumber yard and all the lumber is made of fiber glass. When we enter the office, we find the owner Phil Harbison in conference with one of his best customers, Dean Dravis the wealthy contractor. Well, after chatting with these two old friends, I find it is time for me to get back to planet Earth, so I leave this beautiful Venus and go back to my work.

"SMARTYPANTS"

STORY OF THE PLAY

Can you imagine what happens at Dartmoor, a girls' finishing school when it becomes known that for the first time in its long history a male teacher is arriving to teach the science of aviation? Dana Flood, ace in the last war, young and handsome, becomes the idol of all the girls at Dartmoor. The girls simply can't keep their minds on aviation when they look at Dana. They whistle at him as he crosses the campus and make life so rugged for him that he intends to resign. But Kean Smart, a friend of Dana's comes to Dartmoor, to take photographs of the school for the magazine SEE that is going to do a feature story about the school. Kean persuades Dana to stay on, assuring the latter that he will fix it so that the girls don't pay any attention to Dana. Kean spreads the story around the campus that Dana is a married man, the father of two adorable children. Kean (Smartypants) even produces a wife for Dana. She is Denise Defore, dancer, whom Dana has never met! Things go from bad to worse for Dana with Smartypants always on hand at every twist and turn to help (?) his friend out. The biggest laugh of all comes at the finish of the play. It is all clean, top-drawer fun, merry, bright, and carefree. The audience will laugh until their sides ache at "Smartypants."

FRESHMEN CLASS

by

Betty Rogers - Judy Turner

In September we all come to gather,
to see our friends and foes.

We found a new teacher named Mr. Mathers who teaches algebra, as everyone knows.

We elected representatives to Student Council
Peggy, Joe, and Jean,

They have done their job well
as everyone has seen.

Next we elected class officers,
who we think are pretty shrewd,

They have done a fine job and they are as follows:
Rogers, Horn, Turner, and Frew.

The Freshmen had a basketball team,
our coach was Mr. Mathers

Although we didn't win many games
it's the spirit that really matters!

Next we had a class meeting,
our sponsors did attend

Our officers took over to the very end.

We decided on a class party which was held on the 4th of December

It was a grand occasion
we certainly will remember.

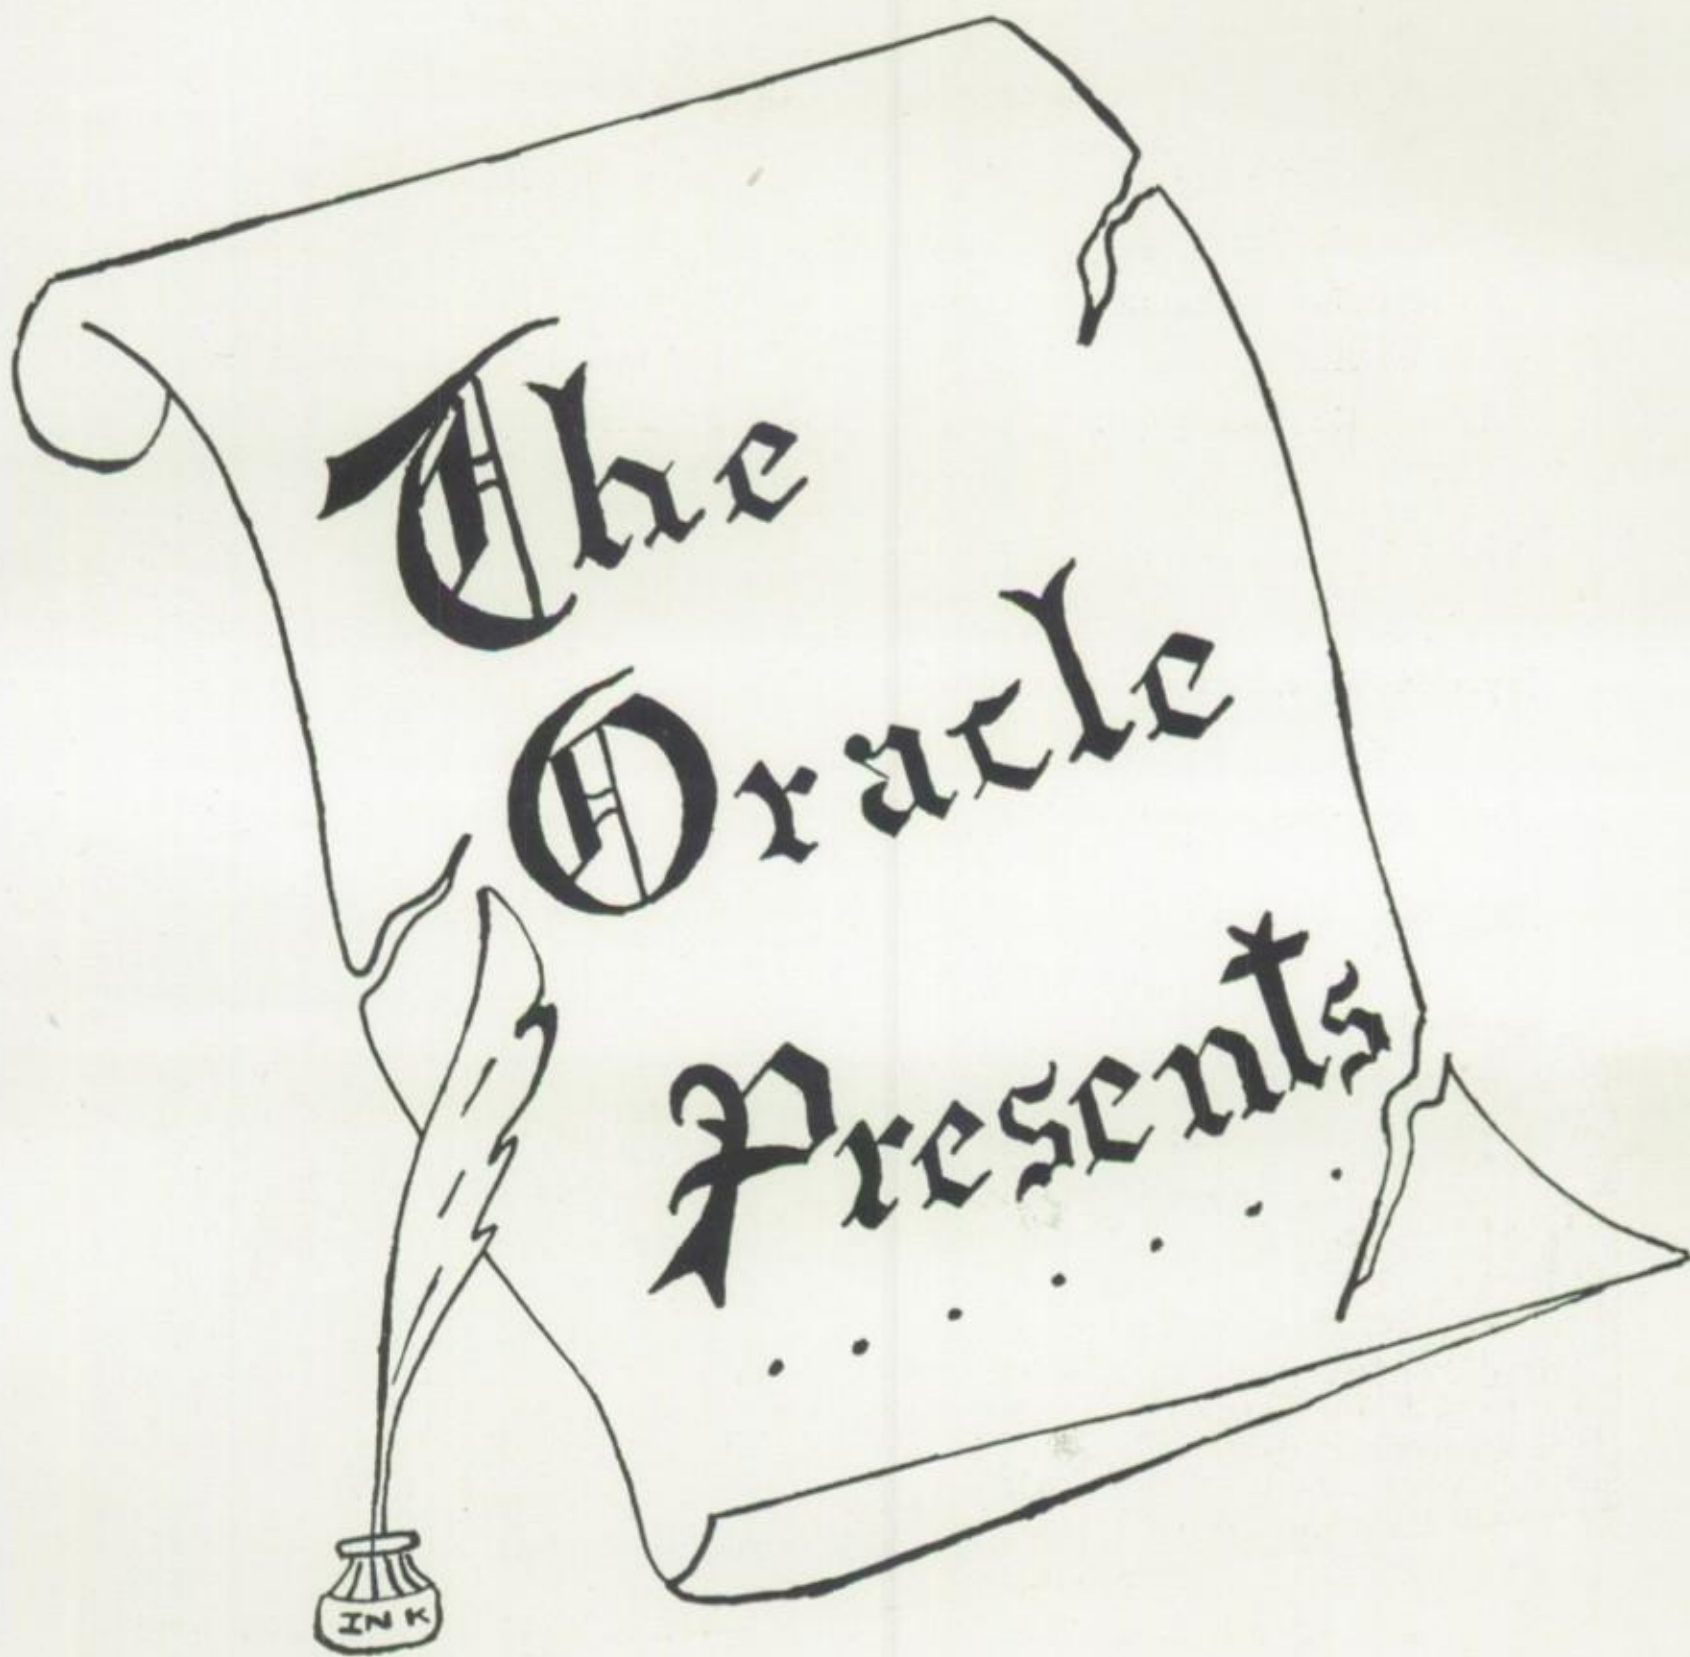

We had as refreshments,
ice cream and pop

Potato chips and pretzels
they sure hit the spot.

We also had dancing, which the boys didn't like,
so they sat on the sidelines most of the night.

So here's to the Freshmen,
the class of "56"

We leave to future Freshmen
our bag of old tricks.

Sports

Go Varsity go,
Go Varsity go,
Hit 'em high,
Hit 'em low,
Go Varsity go!

The team got in a huddle,
The Captain lowered his head
They all got together,
And this is what they said,
"F-I-G-H-T, fight!"

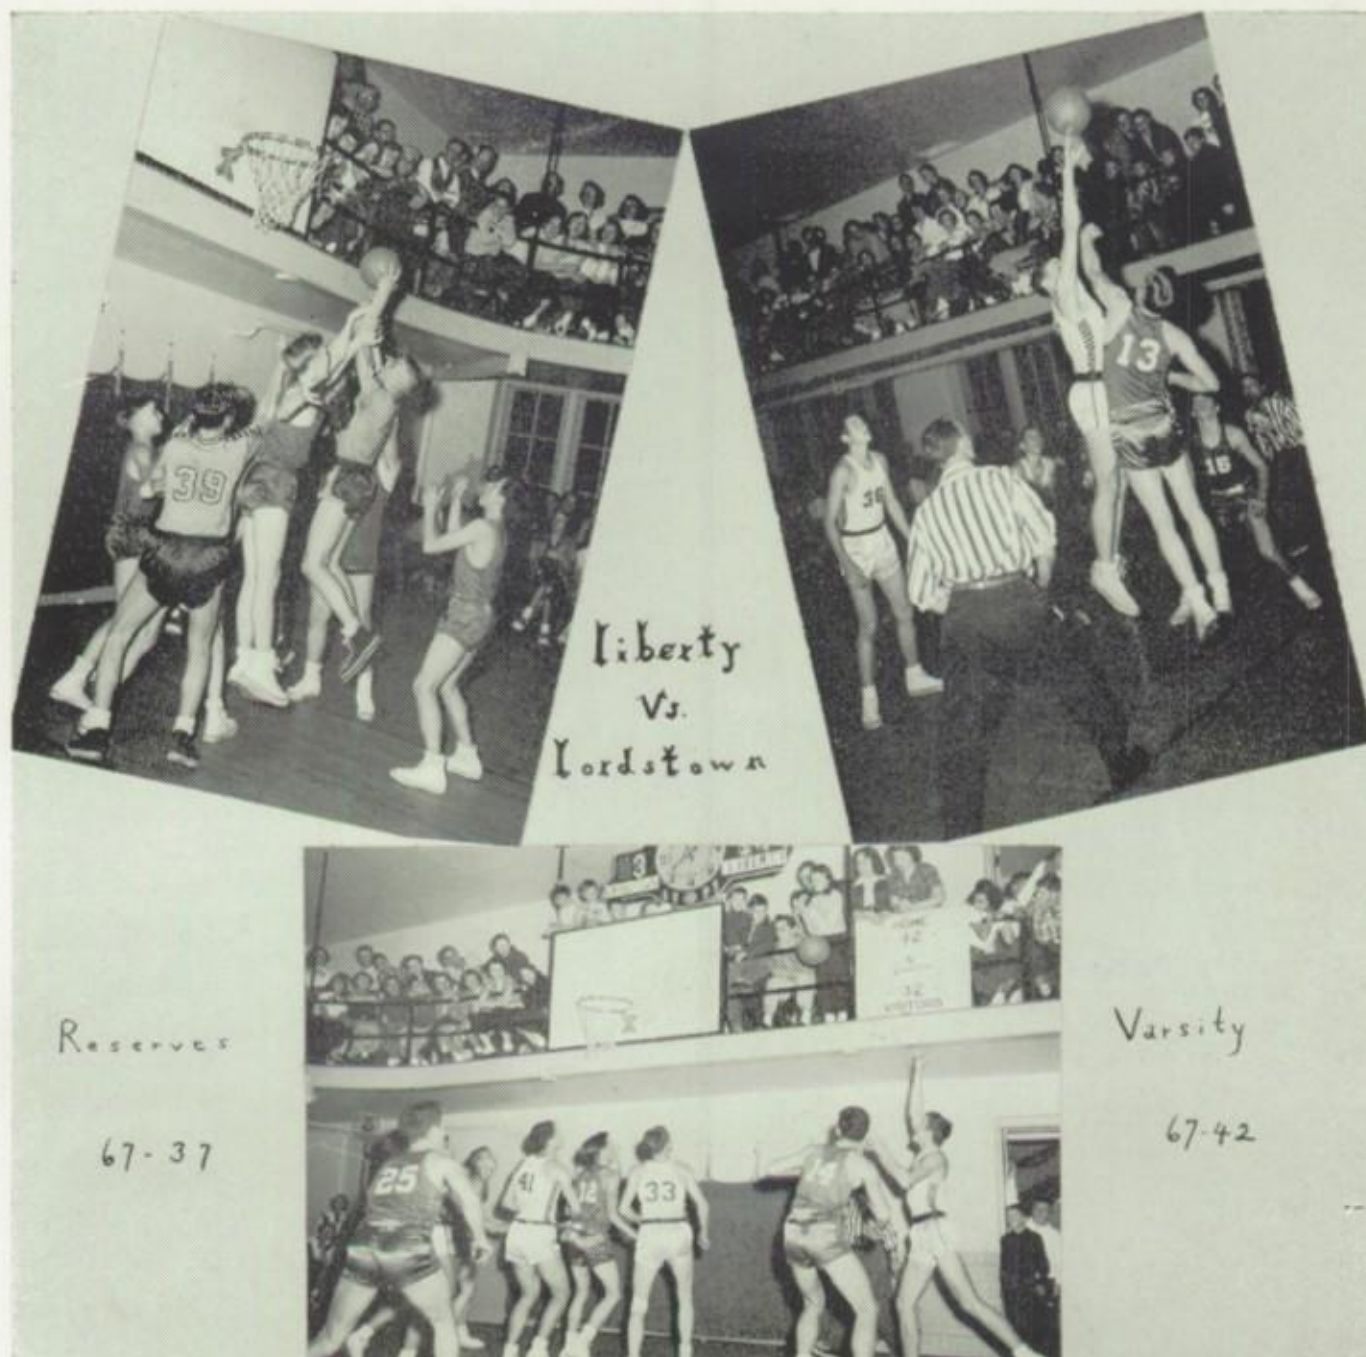

Joyce McGhee, Shirlee Scala, Mary Lou Wulk, Betty Lou Wulk, Adele Fausten

Norma Frew, Betty Boop, Margie Stephenson, Louise Gossick

Shoot 'em
Pass 'em
Dribble down the floor,
Come on team, we want more!

See that basket,
See that score,
That's O.K.
But we want more!

Varsity Team

THE 1952 - 1953 BASKETBALL TEAM

Our basketball team this year had a very successful season. They won twenty three games and lost only two. Howland, a Class A team defeated us but we later avenged that loss. Our other setback was at the hands of North Lima in the district meet.

Our boys also won the T. I. A. championship this year. This is the first time since 1925 that Liberty has taken the laurels in this meet.

Our coach Pete Prokop has worked for three years to achieve this goal. Finally he came up with a team that could do it—and did.

So, we express our congratulations to a championship team and a championship coach and hope that they will have continued success.

Since this year was an election year, the Student Council held a national election for all students from grades 7-12.

Among various assemblies there are the annual assemblies of the Student Council. The Memorial Day Service and the Variety Show are some of the assemblies.

The Memorial Day Service we commemorate all the names of the people who have passed on from our school.

At the Variety Show all the talented students are invited to perform.

The success of the Student Council depends upon the cooperation of the student body. With this cooperation, there can be nothing but success.

G. A. A.

The Girls Athletic Association is growing larger and larger every year. The purpose of the club is to teach girls good sportsmanship and the various athletic games. Activities for this year included swimming, bowling, volleyball, basketball, baseball, square dancing and a mother-daughter banquet. A new system went into effect this year by which girls must now earn 100 points before they are admitted to the club. We are grateful to Miss Locke, our advisor who is doing much for the club.

LET THERE BE MUSIC

Let there be music from the fruited plains,
Which yield to the toiler's hand;
Music from the azure skies
Over a peaceful land.

Let us hear songs of men whose faith
Has grown tall as the Indian corn;
Songs that breathe a fervent prayer
For the land where they were born.

May kindness and forbearance make
This land a glorious place;
Where each man feels a brotherhood
Unmarred by creed or race.

May the songs of man inspire
Our deeds to be so designed;
That we may glorify our God;
And live to serve mankind.

MUSIC

The Glee Club and Band have given a number of concerts this year. On January 21 we participated with McDonald and Mineral Ridge and gave a Southeast District Music Festival at Mineral Ridge.

On March 27, we gave our Annual Spring Festival in which the Glee Club sang some of their favorite songs. The Band played some of their favorite selections which they had perfected during the year. Under the direction of Mr. Schroeder both departments have done a wonderful job.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Teeter and the librarians, they carry on the routine work of the library, including the checking of books and magazines, both in and out, filing, making overdues and reserve notices, and many other duties. These students are doing an excellent piece of work for the school.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

On the evening of May 9, 1952 the Juniors honored the Seniors with the annual prom banquet and dance at the Squaw Creek Country Club.

A starlight motif prevailed in room and table decorations. On the tables were place cards made of stars imprinted with the signs of the zodiac. Above the fireplace were large figures of the signs of the zodiac representing the birthdays of the guests.

Phil Harbison was toastmaster for the evening. The invocation was given by Athena Costas. The program, included songs and speeches, was given by some of the members of the Junior and Senior class.

After this phase of the prom, there was dancing. The music was furnished by Charley James. In the middle of the dance floor there was a large world suspended from the ceiling with the moon and stars hanging around it.

The enjoyable evening came to a close as the clock struck midnight. The Juniors are to be complimented on the wonderful job of making Prom a success.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The four principles on which the National Honor Society is founded are scholarship, leadership, character and service. Each year students who are in the upper third of their class are eligible to be chosen by the faculty. The election is limited to five per cent of the Junior class and fifteen per cent of the Senior class.

The members from the Senior Class chosen in their junior year are Athena Costas, Pauline Saare, and Loretta Sund. The newly elected members are Betty Lou Wulk, Mary Lou Wulk, Shirlee Scala, Lillian Check and Ray Jaminet. The members elected from the Junior Class this year are Ann Bentley, Willa England, and Sammy Todd.

There was a banquet March 7 at Champion attended by the honor students from Trumbull County and their parents. At the banquet the new members were briefed in the history and constitution of the Society. The newly elected members were then initiated in a solemn and impressive ceremony. The Seniors received a pin and certificate.

MOTHER'S CLUB

The aims and purposes of the Liberty Mother's Club have always been to promote good fellowship and to support programs of education, welfare, and health.

Their meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month. Their programs consist of entertainment given by the grade school, high school, or some guest speaker. In May, there is open hour in the evenings for parents to see what their children have done throughout the year.

They sponsor dances and other entertainment to raise money to buy improvements for the school. This year they also sponsored the Athletic Banquet which was held March 21.

Congratulations, Classes of 1953!

This is an inaugural year! Our own land begins a new presidential era. England assumes a new ruler. And YOU open the page to a new and exciting chapter in your own life's story!

But stop for a moment before you begin! Check your equipment and understand your best dreams. Then take to the path that leads to success with confidence. There will be disappointments, of course . . . when your goal seems far off and the course rugged. But remember that many have vested their hopes in you . . . just as America looks to Ike, as England is revived by the wholesomeness of Elizabeth.

And so it is YOUR year of commencement . . . YOUR moment of challenge . . . YOUR year of inauguration! Add our name to your list of friends who are certain that you will reach the high pinnacle of joy and success.
